

The Arts Society Conference and AGM Bristol 24th May.

Unfortunately I am unable to go but would be delighted if any members could attend as this year we have managed to winkle them out of London down to the West Country!

Each society can claim up to £150 towards costs. Hope some of you will sign up.

Check the 'Bristol 23' page on the Arts Society website. (The event will also be live streamed)

Click on the blue wording below for full details and booking forms.

Karen

CONFERENCE AND AGM 2023

This year The Arts Society Conference and AGM will be held in Bristol. The main Conference and AGM event will take place on Wednesday 24th May 2023 at St George's Bristol.

For further details please visit our dedicated Bristol 2023 webpage. On the Bristol 2023 page you can find further information on the event including an evening reception on Tuesday 23rd May (this is bookable), an outline agenda for Wednesday 24th and information on places to visit in Bristol.

We are looking forward to welcoming members to Bristol where we can all come together again to celebrate the organisation's resilience, the dedication of our volunteers and to look ahead to the future.

Bristol - with its artistic credentials and multi-faceted heritage is a wonderful city in which to celebrate arts and heritage.

Bristol has long been a centre for arts and creativity. From Cary Grant to Banksy, from Ellen Sharples to Damien Hirst, from Portishead to sculptor Nigel Hall, Bristol has produced and played home to many creatives who have helped shape British art and culture. In recent years, Bristol's history and heritage has been at the forefront of many important discussions around art, history and the stories we tell about them.

For this reason and many more, we feel Bristol is the ideal city for The Arts Society to hold its 2023 Conference and AGM. For further details and to reserve your place, please visit Bristol 2023.